FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ANOMAR Festival Returns in 2022

Community Invited to “Save the Date” For Inclusive Arts Festival

After a two year hiatus, organizers of the AnomaR festival are pleased to announce the event's return in 2022.

The festival, scheduled for Sat., June 11, 2022 from 2 to 8 p.m., will take place at the Begent Ranch on Highland Valley Road (Address to be released at a later date).

Based on the belief that “Art is Everything”, attendees of all ages are welcome to explore hands-on activities in several disciplines including art, gardening, wellness, music and more.

Individuals or organizations interested in sharing their collaborative activity may contact organizers through an online form at anomarfestival.com or by emailing 2creategallery@gmail.com.

Tickets for the event will be available on the website starting Jan. 10, 2022. Advance tickets for adults and children are $15 until June 6. Tickets purchased after June 6 will be $20. Children 6 years old and younger will receive free entry.

AnomaR is sponsored by 2Create, Inc. and The Art Center of Ramona, both 501(c)(3) organizations. Proceeds benefit The Art Center with grants made available to local high school art programs.
